Matthew D. Krows, CFP® serves as a Vice President for Highland Capital Brokerage – Northwest. He is a 12-year veteran of the financial services industry. Matt is a trusted planning expert and resource for professionals and their clients. He possesses a unique ability to distill complex business, financial, and estate planning strategies into understandable terms. Whether working with ultra-high net worth families, business owners, new families, or retirees, Matt's creativity and passion reside in formulating customized and tailored planning solutions at the highest level of excellence that support dreams and goals.

Prior to his role with Highland, Matt worked at John Hancock Life Insurance Company, collaborating with advisory teams at the nation's largest financial institutions to provide insured strategies as part of the financial planning process.

Matt is Life & Health insurance licensed and he is Certified in Long-Term Care (CLTC). In addition, he holds a Series 7 (General Securities Representative) and a Series 63 (Uniform Securities Agent State Law) license. Matt holds a CERTIFIED FINANCIAL PLANNER™ Professional (CFP®) designation from the Certified Financial Planner Board of Standards. He is a graduate of Western Washington University with a BA in Music where he studied vocal performance, conducting, and music education. Matt brings that same educational and creative spirit in his professional life.

Matt lives in Seattle with wife Meighan and their two daughters, Julia and Jane. As a family they spend as much time as they can outdoors on the water boating in the San Juan & Gulf Islands or hiking in the beautiful Pacific Northwest.
