Steve Kampwerth, CFP® serves as a Sales Vice President for Highland Capital Brokerage–West.

One thing Steve particularly loves about financial planning is the opportunity to draw on his entrepreneurial nature and craft his own practice. Through knowledge, information, and professional partnerships, he knows that he can present strategic solutions that are tailored to a client's needs. Steve thrives at taking complex insurance based solutions and breaking them down into simple terms so that the implementation process is seamless.

Early on, Steve decided to channel that energy into helping other financial advisors understand how to incorporate life insurance into their practice to give their clients more options. As a valued part of HCB—Southwest, Steve is focused on supporting his institutional clients and their financial advisors/wealth managers.

For nearly 20 years, Steve has pursued success within financial services, and with his tenacity for building business and developing loyal client relationships, he has earned it. Prior to joining HCB, he worked with Bank of America in Houston, Texas, where he managed and implemented the distribution channel of life insurance products within the southern Texas and New Mexico markets. He was able to demonstrate his value and influence by increasing gross revenue in his first year and continuing to remain a top producer throughout his tenure.

Before his stint with Bank Of America, Steve traveled the U.S. setting up retirement strategies for business owners that included deferred compensation plans, qualified plans, and business succession plans.

Steve lives in Houston, Texas, with his wife and three young children. He holds an MBA from the University of Illinois and the CFP® designation.
