Michelle M. Gilly serves as a Vice President for Highland Capital Brokerage–West in Colorado. Michelle has over 17 years of experience in the financial services industry. She specializes in assisting independent and institutional advisors with strategies that provide value to their clients. Through a collaborative and consultative approach, Michelle trains advisors on life insurance concepts and provides sophisticated point-of-sale support to their clients when needed.

Whether it is estate, retirement, or business planning, Michelle is committed to helping financial professionals achieve greater success by partnering with them to help their clients build, preserve, and distribute their wealth.

Prior to joining Highland, Michelle held various positions with Phoenix Life. Most recently, she was the Regional Managing Director in Denver, responsible for assisting independent, institutional, and State Farm agents with point-of-sale on planning strategies utilizing life insurance. Prior to that, Michelle was the Director of Personal Producing General Agency (PPGA) development and the Director of National Accounts at Phoenix's home office in Hartford. In this role, she was instrumental in working with the top producers on the brokerage side and with national accounts on an entity to entity basis. In addition, Michelle also served as Sales Director for Phoenix Life in Chicago. Michelle's first entrée into financial services was with Chubb Life as a Marketing Manager, assisting independent producers with case design, in their Chicago field office.

In addition to her financial services background, Michelle spent eight years as a small business owner in the technology industry. This enhanced her perspective for the importance of proper planning, especially in the business market.

Michelle currently holds a Life, Accident & Health license in Colorado and is working toward her Chartered Life Underwriter designation through The American College. Michelle was on the Denver chapter board of the National Association of Insurance and Financial Advisors (NAIFA) and the board of the Better Business Bureau (BBB).

Michelle lives in Greenwood Village, Colorado with her husband, Mike and their two daughters, Stephanie and Caroline.
