K. Alec Thornton, J.D., serves as Vice President for Highland Capital Brokerage – Mid-Atlantic, covering the state of Ohio. With more than 25 years of experience in the legal and financial services industry, Alec specializes in partnering with financial advisors and assisting their high net worth and ultra-high net worth clients (individuals and business owners) meet their short and long term estate, tax, and business planning goals.

Pulling from years of planning experience, Alec makes complex planning solutions simple and understandable for advisors and their clients. From common long-term care planning to more complex solutions such as premium finance, charitable planning, or succession planning, Alec addresses their client's needs and provides realistic and unbiased options.

Prior to joining Highland, Alec was a licensed attorney in Ohio for nearly two decades. He focused on advanced estate, tax, and business planning for high net worth clients. Most recently, Alec served as a planning and insurance specialist at these highly respected institutions: U.S. Bancorp Insurance and Investments, Fifth Third Private Bank, and Merrill Lynch.

Alec attended Wittenberg University in Springfield, Ohio where he majored in Accounting and played football. After that, he received his Juris Doctor (J.D.) from the University of Toledo College of Law with an emphasis in tax planning. Alec has a Life and Health insurance license and he holds a Series 6 (Investment Company Products/Variable Contracts Limited Representative), a Series 7 (General Securities Representative), a Series 63 (Uniform Securities Agent State Law), and a Series 66 (Combined Uniform Investment Advisor) license.

Alec and his wife, Tami, have three children and two grandchildren. In his spare time, Alec enjoys golf, boating, following daughter Marie at Otterbein University, and spending time with family, especially grandsons Bodie and Blaine.
